Heavily-favored Burlingame demonstrated that it is more than a one-dimensional football team in a 35-6 win over San Mateo at the 88th Little Big Game in front of a capacity crowd Saturday at San Mateo High.

San Mateo committed heavily on defense to stopping the run, the strength of Burlingame's Wing-T offense. So the Panthers were forced to show some offensive versatility.

Quarterback Cameron Kelaita threw two touchdown passes to Cooper Gindraux and Burlingame returned two kicks for to start the second half by \
