Gunn girls, Paly boys run to league cross-country titles

The Gunn girls successfully defended their title and the Palo Alto boys moved up two places and claimed a championship, as well, at the SCVAL El Camino Division Championships in cross country on Tuesday at Crystal Springs in Belmont.

In the boys' race, Matison was just a second slower than his winning time from last year while clocking 15:31.2. Sophomore Kent Slaney was seventh in 16:19.6, sophomore Naveen Pai was 11th in 16:39.0, senior Aaron Chandler (16:56.5) was 17th and junior Sam Desre (17:06.4) was 22nd to wrap up the Vikings' title with 58 points.

The Gunn boys were second with 72 points as Reid Kovacs led the way in 10th (16:37.5). Teammates Ryan Araghi (16:43.5), Jonas Enders (16:43.8) and Josh Radi (16:47.6) finished 13th, 14th and 15th, respectively, while Dylan Latham-McGraw wrapped up the scoring in 20th (17:05.8).
