Gunn runners are right on track at the Stanford Invitational

It was a good weekend for Gunn seniors Gillian Meeks and Maya Miklos, who moved among the state leaders in a handful of events during the annual Stanford Invitational.

After clocking the No. 2 time in the state in the 3,000 meters on Friday, Meeks returned to Cobb Track & Angell Field on Saturday and finished fourth in the mile. Her time of 4:53.81, when converted to 4:52.11 for 1,600 meters, moved her to No. 5 in the state.

The Palo Alto boys finished sixth in the 400 relay in 43.63 after running 43.43 in the prelims (Bellarmine was first in 42.17) and Paly junior Kent Slaney was 12th in the mile in 4:21.47. That time converts to 4:19.95 for the 1,600, just off his personal best of 4:18.55 from the CCS meet last season.

Slaney also ran on the Vikings' 1,600 relay was was 13th overall in a season best of 3:28.19. Bellarmine again was first in 3:21.87 with Los Gatos a very close second in 3:21.88. Menlo-Atherton also had a season best, clocking 3:28.30 for 14th.

The Menlo-Atherton girls, meanwhile, were ninth in the 1,600 relay in 4:01.62.

Menlo School's Robert Miranda reached a personal best in the mile run with a time of 4:25.30, topping his previous mark of 4:35.71. The clocking converts to a season-best time of 4:23.76 for the 1,600.
