Gunn girls, Paly boys run away with track meet victories

Maya Miklos of Gunn and Kent Slaney of Palo Alto each won three individual events to pace their respective track and field teams to solid victories in SCVAL De Anza Division dual-meet action Tuesday at Gunn.

Miklos, a senior, won the 100-meter hurdles in 15.36 and the 300 hurdles in 45.09. She also won the 100 in 12.59 and, for good measure, anchored the Titans' 400 relay to victory in a season-best 49.28.

The efforts by Miklos and her teammates kept Gunn undefeated in league action following a 91-36 triumph.

Slaney went the longer route for the Paly boys as he won the 800 in 2:02.55, took the 1,600 in 4:27.32 and cruised to victory in the 3,200 in 10:16.61. The once-beaten Vikings easily defeated rival Gunn, 83-44.

The Paly boys, who suffered their first dual-meet loss last week to Los Gatos, bounced back nicely in the annual rivalry meet with Gunn.

Austin Cox took the 100 (11.24) and long jump (19-10) in addition to taking second in the 200 to teammate Eli Givens (22.48). Givens moved up to the 400 for the first time this season and won that in 51.26, just holding off teammate Dami Bolarinwa's 51.36. Bolarinwa and Cox also ran on the Gunn senior Maya Miklos won three individual events and anchored the winning 400 relay to pace the Titans to a 91-36 dual-meet win over Palo Alto on Tuesday.
