

SPORTS

Updated: Sun, Sep 11, 2016, 2:45 pm

Uploaded: Sun, Sep 11, 2016, 12:28 am

Slaney out runs the competition at Lowell Invitational

Palo Alto senior Kent Slaney raced to victory in the first Varsity Boys race of the Lowell cross country Invitational in Golden Gate Park on Saturday.

Slaney ran 14:29.5 to win by 23 seconds over second place finisher Jake Ritter of Granite Bay.

The Palo Alto boys ran well collectively, winning the race, 41-92, over Martin Luther King. Menlo-Atherton placed third.

The top five Vikings runners all finished among the top 15: Naveen Pai (15:22.9) in sixth, Henry Saul (15:28.7) in eighth, Spencer Morgenfeld (15:33.7) in 11th and Sam Craig (15:39.9) in 15th.

Kent Slaney at the Lowell Invitational.