Paly wins the track and field battle over rival Gunn

by Glenn Reeves/Palo Alto Online Sports

Palo Alto swept its track and field dual meet Wednesday with visiting Gunn. The boys had an easy time of it in an 94-33 victory. The girls meet was more competitive with Palo Alto ending up on top by a 69-57 margin.

The Paly boys finished the dual-meet undefeated, giving Vikings coach Michael Davidson his first league title.

In the boys meet, Palo Alto's depth in the distance races was a highlight. The Vikings had a 27-0 advantage in the 800, 1,600 and 3,200.

Kent Slaney won the 800 in 2:03.86, followed by Kai Oda (2:04.18) and Aashai Avadhani (2:04.44).

Henry Saul, who won the 1,600 in 4:28.52, placed fourth in the 800 in 2:07.93. Reed Foster (4:35.19) and Naveen Pai (4:35.74) were second and third in the 1,600.

In the 3,200 it was Slaney (10:04.69), followed by Samuel Craig (10:17.98) and Pai (10:36.95).

Foster also won the 400 (52.71). Slaney was second in 53.29.

Derby Felter led a Paly sweep in the 110 high

Margaret Redfield was a triple winner for Gunn in the high jump (5-0), discus (87-7) and triple jump (33-6).
